REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art, either alone or in combination, does not disclose or render obvious an electrical cable comprising a holding member containing an optic fiber arranged longitudinally along the cable; at least one strength member adjacent the holding member providing additional protection to the optic fiber, wherein the strength member is attached to the holding member by polyethylene and wherein the strength member and the holding member are attached by a polyethylene jacket in combination with the rest of claim 7.

It is noted that the claim 7 is allowable because the unique combination of each and every specific element stated in the claim.

The prior art, either alone or in combination, does not disclose or render obvious an electrical cable comprising a first holding member arranged longitudinally along the cable between the layer of insulation and the corrugated welded armor; and at least one strength member adjacent the first holding member in combination with the rest of claim 12.

It is noted that the claim 12 is allowable because the unique combination of each and every specific element stated in the claim.

It is noted that Sanders et al. (PG PUB 20050078922) does not render the instant claims as obvious at least because 20050078922 does not disclose a strength member adjacent the holding member.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
